1	enjoyed listening to what's on resident's minds	4/13/2017 11:51 AM
2	Due to potential conflicts of interest, I don't choose to voice my opinions publicly.	4/12/2017 10:44 AM
3	Felt we were rehashing old items and board member was doing most of the talking. And saying the same things over and over and not really answering the questions.	4/11/2017 11:43 PM
4	Perhaps obtain questions in advance and prepare responses. If we could just work through the facts would speed up the process.	4/11/2017 10:43 PM

1	When the board said that there is no way to inform residents and club presidents about current maintenance items. The management company sucks.	4/12/2017 4:06 PM
2	Unclear what actions the Board will take in response to concerns.	4/12/2017 10:44 AM
3	Sometime people rambled on.	4/12/2017 10:42 AM
4	We are not getting anytime with the board without the Management being there like before	4/12/2017 9:43 AM
5	Good starting point. Just trying to stay positive.	4/11/2017 10:43 PM
6	Responses need to be complete and concise; not in circles and not being accountable.	4/10/2017 6:17 PM
7	Board members talked too much	4/10/2017 6:01 PM

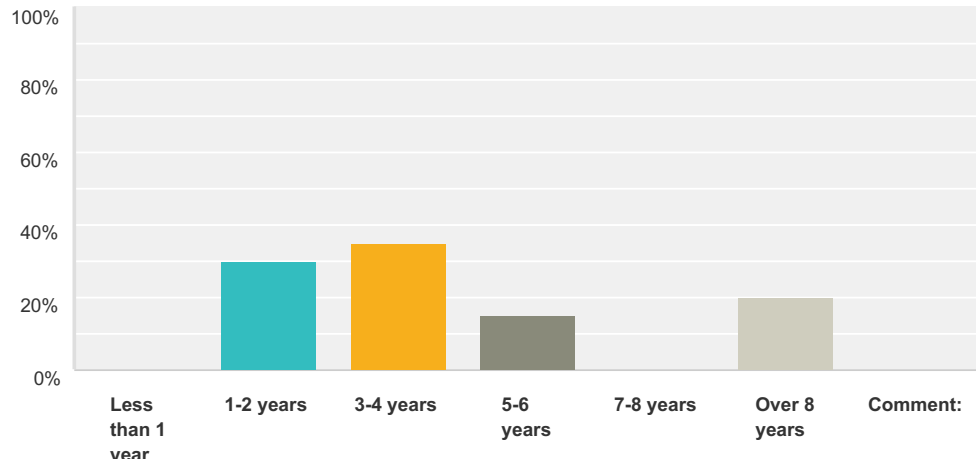

Q5 What, if any, suggestions would you have to make these meeting better?

Answered: 9 Skipped: 11

#	Responses	Date
1	Answers to questions more concise, and not drawn out.	4/14/2017 8:15 AM
2	Can't think of anything right now.	4/13/2017 11:51 AM
3	Make solutions to the problems that have been addressed	4/13/2017 11:42 AM
4	Have Greg in there.. Was he hiding out drinking coffee?	4/12/2017 4:06 PM
5	Keep answers pertinent, do not talk to talk.	4/11/2017 11:43 PM
6	Have sign in sheet as people walk in.	4/11/2017 10:43 PM
7	Diana did a good job; but don't forget that Management is not supposed to be present during the entire meeting. Also, the Board needs to ask open ended questions to understand the residents' comments and/or questions and emotions.	4/10/2017 6:17 PM
8	I'm hoping that these meetings evolve more toward dialogue where probing questions are asked in both directions. So far, residents ask questions and Board members try to answer.	4/10/2017 6:04 PM
9	Answer the question and stop there without digressing to areas that are of little relevance.	4/10/2017 6:01 PM
